SHRM Professional Development

Fostering Growth, Building Competencies

shrm.org/develop
From your first day as an HR professional through the end of your career, the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) is there to support you on your professional development journey. SHRM has supported the development of hundreds of thousands of individuals worldwide, fostering professional growth in the technical and behavioral competencies required to excel in HR.

In recent years, the global landscape of business has evolved. It has become crucial that HR professionals develop key competencies to effectively apply HR knowledge and support organizational goals. SHRM has defined those key competencies in the SHRM Body of Competency and Knowledge™ (SHRM BoCK™), which provides HR professionals a comprehensive road map for advancing their careers.

Each SHRM professional development offering supports specific HR knowledge domains and competencies, so you can more easily select learning opportunities that meet your development needs.

Find more information on each development program, including key competencies, at shrm.org/develop.

SHRM Body of Competency & Knowledge™
We all learn in different ways. SHRM offers learning opportunities in a variety of formats and modes—allowing you to optimize your professional development and earn competency-aligned recertification credits. From traditional classroom instruction to self-paced programs, and from industry-leading conferences to live webcasts with subject matter experts, SHRM accommodates your preferences and needs in developing your HR competencies.

SHRM-CP and SHRM-SCP Certification 8

Join SHRM 9
SHRM Certified Professionals (SHRM-CPs) and SHRM Senior Certified Professionals (SHRM-SCPs) recognize the relevance and importance of SHRM certification. Recertification demonstrates your commitment to the continuous development of your professional competencies.

To maintain the SHRM-CP or SHRM-SCP credential, SHRM-certified professionals are required to earn 60 professional development credits (PDCs) every three years. It is simple to complete this process, with numerous ways to earn PDCs in three categories of activities: Advance Your Education, Advance Your Organization and Advance Your Profession.

When you participate in any SHRM webcast, eLearning program, seminar, onsite training program or conference, your PDCs are automatically* uploaded to your Certification Portal—allowing you to focus more on learning and less on paperwork.

Learn more about requirements at shrmcertification.org/recertify/education.

*Note: Please e-mail recertification@shrm.org if you do not see your activities uploaded to your Certification Portal.

SHRM affiliate activities will not be automatically uploaded. It is important to retain all records of activities for up to six months after the end of your 3-year recertification period in case you are randomly selected for an audit.
